

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY LAW

(CEM-02.2.1)

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course focuses on training operational and management personnel, in the statutory requirements related to occupational health and safety (OHS) management.

ADMISSION CRITERIA

A Grade 12 certificate and preferably also:

- Basic knowledge of/and relevant experience in the field of OHS.

PROPOSED NQF LEVEL: 6

Is this course for you?

If you, as a manager or operator, find it increasingly difficult to keep track of changes to the legal environment, what the legal compliance requirements are, and how to interpret and translate them into operational requirements, this course is for you.

COURSE CONTENT

In order to identify and apply the principles and requirements of legislation governing OHS, the following modules will be covered:

- Introduction to OHS;
- Understanding the OHS Act 85 of 1993;
- Regulations to the OHS Act;
- Other OHS related legislation; and
- Compensation and labour related legislation.
